Weekly Reflection
5th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Feb. 9, 2019

Before the arrival of GPS and other technological advances, folks relied on a compass to assist them with directions. If set and used properly, people who would otherwise be lost could find their way. What properly sets our God compass? We know that we require God in order to find our way through life, but we need to be in proper relationship with God before this can effectively happen. God certainly does not need to be placated, but some things open Him up to us more than others. Isaiah gives us a clue today. Share your bread with the hungry... clothe the naked... remove oppression, false accusation, and malicious speech... satisfy the afflicted. When we do this, we will not only be on proper course and in right relationship with God, but will be the salt and light Jesus asks us to be.

Fr. Don’s Musings . . .

This Sunday, we do the annual Archbishop’s Catholic Appeal. This is the big fund drive every year for those ministries of our archdiocese that don’t fit neatly into any one particular parish, things like campus ministry, prison ministry, training future priests, continuing education for current priests, social service ministries for the poor... I personally am generous in supporting these ministries and I encourage you to join me in doing so. We’ll be filling out pledge cards during Mass this weekend (5 month pledges). Pledge cards will be available at the church entrances next weekend if you aren’t able to fill one out this weekend.

I will be away on my annual vacation for 12 days starting Monday. I’m going to visit friends in northern Florida, as I do almost every year. I’ll spend the first 4 days by myself, enjoying some peace and quiet (and good kayaking) at the coast and the rest of the time staying with my friends who live by the Georgia border near the very quaint little town of Monticello. I’ll be staying at their 10 acre mini-farm, enjoying lots of outdoor time helping around the farm. Fr. Jim Galluzzo will be filling in for me while I am away.

I will see you in two weeks. Let’s keep praying for one another. ~ Fr. Don

Fr. Jim Galluzzo’s Toiletry Project
Collection for Advent 2020 has Begun!

This past holiday season, 2,000 gift bags filled with donations of personal care items were delivered to various shelters and facilities for the homeless. Over 30 people came to help wrap them up and it was truly a celebratory work party! We are already collecting small, unopened toiletries at the main church door and parish office. The items are picked up weekly and immediately sorted. Please join us again in supporting this gift to others. Visits to the dentist, special sales, and hotel amenities have been good sources in the past. Thank you for your continued help with this collection and sharing project!

From Pat Maclean, Project Coordinator

Yarn Donations Appreciated!

Many thanks to all who donated yarn this past year. It was used by Leonor Lewis, longtime parishioner, to knit and crochet lap robes and hats. The finished products were then distributed to AIDS patients and the homeless by Fr. Jim Galluzzo.

Yarn donations are always welcome and may be dropped off at the parish office.
